There is no change in the overall geographic boundaries of our primary deployment. It remains with the area bounded by Wellington, the Canal, Laurier and Bronson. Officers remain on the perimeter in position on observation points. There are no restrictions for pedestrian traffic but there is a requirement for road closures to facilitate the ongoing rehabilitation of the area, including the removal of additional infrastructure.

There continues to be a robust, integrated police presence, managing traffic points, mobile response, foot patrols and QRT. Traffic services are continuing to be engaged on the periphery.

There was one protest related arrest of one individual for Utter Threats against the A/Chief (22-48398 refers).

In collaboration with local First Nations elders, a smudge ceremony was held on Wellington St as part of a cleansing ceremony.
